FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP (A Message from the U.S. Catholic Bishops [2000])

Inviting all Catholics to “share our values and raise our voices,” Cardinal Roger Mahoney and Bishop Joseph Fiorenza join political commentators and parishioners in this video presentation based on the 1999 bishops’ statement of the same name. Encouraging all citizens to be informed, active and responsible participants in the political process, the bishops ask Catholics to bring their moral values and principles to the debate. By evaluating political platforms and issues in light of the principles of Catholic Social Teaching, we as Catholics can work together for a brighter future that benefits the common good. GUIDE. LENGTH: 11 min. VID#: 28.721

RENEWING THE MIND OF THE MEDIA (1999)

Have you ever felt disturbed by words and images in the media? Do you feel powerless before those in control of news and entertainment media? This video addresses such questions especially as they relate to the gratuitous violence and misuse of sexuality in the media. The U.S. Catholic bishops present this video as a companion piece to its document by the same name in order to provide a starting point for further reflection and action by dioceses, parishes and others. GUIDE. LENGTH: 12 min. VID#: 28.722

GLOBAL SOLIDARITY: A Framework for Parishes (1998)

Helping believers connect the Gospel to the world in which we live is one of the greatest challenges parishes face. As our world grows increasingly inter-dependent, the suffering of our sisters and brothers in other lands touches us more immediately and deeply. The U.S. Bishops recognize the challenges facing parishes. They suggest that global solidarity can be woven into what parishes are already doing - into prayer, preaching, education, service, and action. This video provides a framework for integrating international concerns into parish life, as well as suggestions for parish action and handouts. GUIDE. LENGTH: 14 min. VID#: 28.723
