When Mom and Dad Divorce

By: Emily Menendez-Aponte

Abbey Press, 1999

Divorce isn't easy on anyone, least of all children. This book helps to gently guide children through this painful passage. With compassionate but realistic guidance, the author reassures children that divorce is not their fault, and that they will always be loved and cared for. She offers tips for working through tricky feelings and working out sticky problems, such as loyalty conflicts and schedule confusion. 41.APON

CHILDREN'S VIDEOS in O.R.E.

THE ROSARY FOR LITTLE CHILDREN

PUBLISHER: Wild Canary, 1996

A video children will watch over and over again - with lasting rewards! The Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary, a reflection on the early life of Jesus, has been a mainstay of Christian prayer. And now, in this video, that same rosary is a source of joy for God's littlest children. In this video, children will join a lively chorus of children in a heartfelt journey to Jesus. Led by a heavenly visitor, portrayed by Broadway actress Jennifer Naimo, children will learn the mysteries of Christ's life. And they'll learn how to pray for their families, the Church and children with special needs. LENGTH: 30 min. VID#: 15.730

THE PROUD TREE

SPEAKER: Luane Roche

PUBLISHED: Liguori Publications (1991)

This inspiring, animated video tells children the story of the Crucifixion from the viewpoint of Rex, the tree that became the cross Jesus carried to Calvary. Rex, proud and ungrateful, learns a lesson from the humble, gentle Jesus. Sadness and sympathy for the suffering Jesus mingle with the joy and exultation of the Resurrection as an old familiar story is told in a new and memorable way. GUIDE. COLUMBUS: ADVENTURES TO THE EDGE OF THE WORLD

PUBLISHED: Creative Communication Centre (1990)

It's past midnight, October 12, 1492, and it's now or never for Christopher Columbus and his lifelong dream of discovery. After 37 days of sailing west across unknown seas, he must find land or else return to Spain at dawn, as he has promised his tired, angry crew. But he's not ready to quit. He's not afraid to stand up for his dreams, just as he's not afraid of sea monsters or falling off the edge of the world. From his first sea voyage as a boy to his first step ashore in the Americas, this animated film tells the story of how one man's vision and courage brought continents together and changed history forever. GUIDE. LENGTH: 30 min. VID#: 32.703

NICHOLAS: THE BOY WHO BECAME SANTA CLAUS

FRANCIS: THE KNIGHT OF ASSISI

PUBLISHED: Creative Communication Centre (1989)

It was the age of knights and kings, when honour belonged to the heroes and glory was found in the battlefield. There lived a brave young man named Francis, whose wish was to become a mighty warrior and conquer a magnificent castle. One day Francis felt a calling to greater glory. God had vested upon him a very special mission that would require a supreme act of courage. For the love of God, his King, Francis gave up all that he had and joyfully embarked upon the most exciting and unexpected adventure. This animated film tells the remarkable true story of the founder of the Order of the Minor Friars, and inspirator of three Franciscan orders. GUIDE. LENGTH: 30 min. VID#: 32.705

BERNADETTE: THE PRINCESS OF LOURDESPUBLISHED: Creative Communication Centre (1990)

It's February 11, 1858. three girls from Lourdes, France, gather firewood in front of a grotto. Suddenly one of them, Bernadette Soubirous, 14, drops to her knees, gazes ecstatically at something beautiful only she can see, and starts to pray. Soon the town buzzes: Has Bernadette, poor, sickly and always behind in school, really seen a Lady from Heaven? The police chief is angry, the pastor busy, and the crowds amused, but Bernadette is calm and brave. Then a spring bubbles up from nowhere and withered arms and sightless eyes are cured. At last, the Lady tells Bernadette her name: "I am The Immaculate Conception." This animated film tells the true story of a visit by the Queen of Heaven that left all the world a source of health for body and soul. GUIDE. LENGTH: 30 min. VID#: 32.707

CRYSTALSTONEPUBLISHED: Creative Communication Centre (1987)

This full-length family film is an uplifting blend of adventure and comedy. Two orphaned children embark on a fabulous adventure in search of a mystical gem that holds the key to happiness. Deserted by their father and now orphaned by their mother, young Pablo and his baby sister Maria are left in the care of an Aunt. Upon learning of her plans to separate them, the two run away. They come upon an old man who lulls them to sleep with the tale of a magical gem laden with secret powers. The children awaken to find the old man gone, with only a wooden cross left in his place. Instinctively, Pablo takes the cross. Little does he know it holds the key to their future. LENGTH: 91 min. VID#: 32.710

THE BIRDSEED BLUNDERPUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications (1992)

This is one in a series of four videos in which Muppet-like characters are featured in scriptural retellings that bring the message of the parables to light for young children. CLING, THE GREEDY FOOL

PUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications (1994)

This story is based on Luke 12: 16-21. Greedy Cling is deciding what else to stockpile since he already owns everything he can think of. Bee Quick suggests ice cream. Even when Cling is surrounded by cartons of ice cream melting and oozing out over all of his possessions, he continues to make more. Scooter and Flap are curtly sent away as Cling refuses to even give them a lick. As he is summoned away, he is left wondering about the benefit of possessing all that ice cream if he couldn't stay and eat it. GUIDE. LENGTH: 11 min. VID#: 32.723

BILLIE, THE WISE BUILDER

PUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications (1994)

This story is based on Matthew 7: 24-27; Luke 6: 47-49. It's home-building time again in the forest and Billie Bullfinch is expounding on the proper way to build a house. She explains that it has to stand up to weather; building materials must be strong and flexible and that the crook of the tree is the most advantageous location. Zoot the Coot plans to build way out on a limb so he can enjoy the sunlight, fresh air and gentle breezes. As Zoot's nest is quickly blown to pieces, he hides in a hole in the ground while Billie relaxes in her home. GUIDE. VID#: 32.724

BOB, THE WANDERING LAMB

PUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications (1994)

This story is based on Matthew 18: 12-14; Luke 15: 3-7. As Shep, the shepherd dog, leads his herd of sheep through the mountains to the pasture in the valley, Bob becomes distracted by the beautiful colors on a butterfly and lingers behind. When he rushes to find the other sheep, he chooses the wrong trail and becomes lost. After discovering Bob's absence, Shep says he must leave the herd to look for Bob. Merino and Cashmere protest, arguing that Bob isn't worth looking for. Shep answers, "Bob isn't a loser, he's just lost." GUIDE. VID#: 32.725

THE GRUMPY TREE

PUBLISHER: Daughters of St. Paul, 1998

The Grumpy Tree is the timeless story of a tree who never wants to share. The tree is unkind to everyone, and never even realizes how lonely he is. But when the tree is attacked by termites, the kindness of the forest animals helps him discover the meaning of true friendship. GUIDE. LENGTH: 13 min. VID#: 32.726

THE DONKEY'S TALE: A STORY ABOUT THE LIFE OF JESUS

SPEAKER: Fr. William Wiebler

PUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications

Moshe is the foal that Jesus rode into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. His grandfather, Balthasar, was in the stable at Bethlehem, and warmed the Baby with his breath. His Aunt Ester boasted that she carried Mary and Jesus on the flight to Egypt. Moshe and his little donkey cousins encounter the Messiah at various times: in the temple in Jerusalem, at the wedding feast of Cana and on Calvary. And after keeping watch at Jesus' tomb for three days, Moshe comes face to face with the risen Christ. LENGTH: 13 min. VID#: 32.800

GRANDMA'S ORNAMENT

SPEAKER: Rev. C. J. Emerson

PUBLISHED: Twenty-Third Publications

Although appropriate at any time of year, the Advent season is especially significant in the telling of Amy's problem and how it is resolved. What to do about Amy? She's a clumsy child who spills and trips and bumps into things. And this year, it's her turn to hang the special decoration on the tree. Grandma brings a new ornament every year; and this year's decoration is a prized heirloom, a fragile handmade Christ child resting in a delicate manger. Amy, understandably, is not looking forward to the event. How she overcomes and wins out over her clumsiness makes for a very winning and delightful story. GUIDE. NOAH'S ARK

PUBLISHED: William Hanna and Joseph Barbera, 1986

Violence and corruption fill the earth, and God is angry. To punish this wickedness, God vows to flood the world. Only one man and his family will be spared, because they alone honor God's law. That man is Noah. God commands Noah to build an ark and fill it with two each of every animal on the planet. As they go about constructing this massive boat, Noah and his sons must also put up with scorn and even sabotage from their sinful neighbors. But Noah and his family persevere, working day and night to finish their assignment from God. Noah's faith is vindicated when the heavens let forth with a torrent of rain that last for forty days. But God's test of Noah's courage and commitment is just beginning. LENGTH: 28 min. VID#: 32.907

DAVID AND GOLIATH

PUBLISHED: William Hanna and Joseph Barbera, 1986

The kingdom of Israel faces its greatest threat when the rampaging army of the Philistines marches across its borders. In the forefront of the invaders is a giant warrior: Goliath. This towering behemoth issues a challenge to the Israelites - he will meet in single combat with one of them. If Goliath is beaten, the Philistines will be servants of the Israelites, but if Goliath wins, the Israelites will be enslaved. For forty days Goliath repeats this challenge, and still no man steps forth to fight for his country's survival. But one boy does: David. Impressed by this display of courage, Saul entrusts the defence of the kingdom to David, whom he knows only as the shepherd boy who sings psalms to him at court. Armed with nothing more than his sling and his faith in God, David walks out to meet his mighty foe. LENGTH: 27 min. VID#: 32.908

THE LEGEND OF THE CHRISTMAS FLOWER

PUBLISHED: KinderVision (Michael & Nora Berry) 1995

In 1825, when Dr. Joel R. Poinsett was chosen as first U.S. Ambassador to Mexico, no one could have imagined what a worldwide impact he would have - although it was not to be in the political arena. His most exciting discovery was the beautiful holiday plant that would bear his name: the poinsettia!

Little did he know, but the bright crimson flower had a lore and history all its own. Set against the backdrop of colonial Mexico, 8-year-old Juanito and his grandfather leave their small mountain village and embark upon the adventure of a lifetime. Along the way, though, Juanito encounters a journey of a different type and discovers the true spirit of Christmas - the gift of giving! LENGTH: 40 min. VID#: 32.916

THE SONGS OF CHRISTMAS

PUBLISHED: Franciscan Communications

The Songs of Christmas is an hour-long special for the entire family. It is a classic video that beautifully dramatizes the birth of the most familiar Christmas songs. Joyce Bulifant, who stars in this video, introduces the special with a warm, personal reflection on the meaning of Christmas carols. Where did the songs come from? What messages do they bring us from the times and places in which they were created? And why do they still have the power to move us today? The Songs of Christmas, more than just another musical/variety special, explore these questions dramatically - with imagination, humour and wonderful music. Musical classics include: Silent Night, I Heard the Bells, O Holy Night, O Christmas Tree, Jolly Old St. Nicholas. This is a perfect way for families to get into the Christmas spirit and to brush up on their Christmas carolling. LENGTH: 49 min. VID#: 32.917

THE CREATION

PUBLISHED: Hanna-Barbera Productions, 1993

In the land of Nod, just east of Eden, a master storyteller relates the story of Genesis. He tells of the spirit of God moving over the waters, of the creation of all plants and animals, and of their naming by Adam. He tells of the creation of Eve. Then Adam and Eve disobey God's command and eat of the forbidden fruit. For their disobedience, God expels Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden.

To the children listening, the story is a lesson in the danger of disobeying God's will. The storyteller reminds them that Genesis means "The Beginning." And for all mankind, for all the ages, this is just the beginning. LENGTH: 30 min.

JONAH

PUBLISHED: Hanna-Barbera Productions, 1994

Jonah, now an elderly man, tells his tale of how God awakened him one night many years ago and told him to go to the great city of Ninevah and preach repentance, as the city's wickedness and violence had offended God. Believing that the Ninevites should be punished Jonah sets out on his journey. However, disobeying God's command, he goes by ship the opposite way to Tarshish. He is thrown from the ship during a storm and is swallowed by a great fish. He lives in the belly of the fish for three days and nights, until he prays to be saved. God repeats His command to Jonah, so he goes to Ninevah. The people repent and Jonah learns that those who repent are forgiven. LENGTH: 30 min. VID#: 32.919

SAMSON & DELILAH

PUBLISHED: Hanna-Barbera Productions, 1994

The Promised Land suffers under the harsh reign of the Philistines, the ancient enemies of Israel. Only the mighty hero Samson dares to resist the oppressors of his people. Unable to subdue Samson with force, the Philistines try treachery. They promise a fortune to Delilah, the woman Samson loves, in return for betraying Samson. Succeeding where armies failed, the seductive beauty finds and removes the source of Samson's strength, with dire consequences for the champion of the Israelites.

But Samson has been blessed from birth by the Almighty, and in spectacular climax the strong man brings down upon the Philistines the wrath of God. LENGTH: 30 min. VID#: 32.920

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS CRIB

St. Anthony Messenger Press

A Story of St. Francis of Assisi. On the eve of Christmas in the year 1223, Francis of Assisi, with the help of some friends, recreated the nativity scene in a cave near Greccio, Italy. A simple hay-filled manger, and an ox and ass, were all the saint used to evoke the poverty and humility of Christ's birth. After the death of Francis, the custom of the Christmas crib spread around the world. Today every culture touched by Christianity expressed the mystery of Christmas in settings and figures unique to that place and its people. LENGTH: 12 min. VID#: 32.926
